4. Personal data to be processed in the register

The register contains information about customers based on the following grouping:

- E-mail address

5. Purpose of the processing of personal data

The personal data is used to send the Kontino newsletters. The newsletters contain marketing communication by Kontino and its partners and surveys concerning Kontino's operations.

The personal data is processed as part of the customer relationship, taking into account the rights and obligations of the customer and Kontino in the processing of personal data in accordance with the Personal Data Act.

6. Period of time for storing personal data

The personal data is kept in the register during the period of validity of Kontino's targeted newsletter service.

The personal data may be removed from the register at the customer's request.

Subscription to the newsletter may be cancelled at any time using the link at the end of each newsletter.

7. Regular data sources

The source of data is the information given by the customer on the online form when registering to subscribe to the newsletter, information that the customer enters him/herself. The customer him/herself may fill in and update his/her data through the link at the end of the newsletter.

8. Regular assignment of personal data

E-mail information may be assigned to a third party for the sending of the Kontino newsletter. Personal data is not assigned to a third party for any other purpose, except if so required by the Finnish authorities.

Personal data is never sent outside the EU or European economic area, even for sending the newsletter.

9. Principles of register protection

The data security of the customer register is ensured by appropriate technical and administrative measures. Data is protected by, for example, firewall, protection of the physical equipment facilities, access control, user rights and encryption technologies.

Personal data is kept confidential and persons processing information in the register are subject to an obligation to secrecy. Access to the customer register database is restricted by personal user rights.

10. The right to check personal data

A person providing his/her data for a register has the right to check the data concerning him/herself, and to demand the correction of incorrect data.

In order to check what personal data about you has been selected for the register, contact the register by email at tietosuoja@kontino.fi. We will endeavour to respond to questions and feedback concerning the register no later than within seven working days.
